

(U//FOUO) 2022 CONVOY TO DC: POTENTIAL IMPACTS TO NORTHERN VIRGINIA

(U//FOUO) Scope Note: This report provides situational awareness to public safety partners on convoy-related events with potential public safety implications for Northern Virginia. These SITREPs will be issued daily unless emerging events require additional reporting. Updates will be provided in red. Tracked by NVRIC SIN 3.

(U) BACKGROUND

(U//FOUO) The Convoy to DC event is a movement of several groups and individuals protesting COVID-19-related mandates amongst other grievances, emerging from the Canadian convoy that has received international attention. This online movement quickly went from simply aspirational to having organizer coordination and funding within the last month. Organizers are calling for truck drivers to travel to the National Capital Region, with the stated goals to either enter and occupy Washington, DC or stage a blockade on the I-495 Capital Beltway.

(U) INTELLIGENCE UPDATES

(U//FOUO) Participant numbers are unknown at this time. Six organizers have been identified:

(U) Bob Bolus Towers & Truckers for America

- (U//FOUO) Arrival Date: February 23; returning no later than February 24-25.
- (U//FOUO) Destination: Travel around the I-495 Beltway
- (U//FOUO) Route: Convoy to Scranton, PA, Harrisburg, PA, and Capital Beltway
- (U//FOUO) Participation: Organizer claims 1,000-1,500 trucks have contacted him, but that information cannot be corroborated. The convoy consists of one 18-wheeler and three other vehicles.
- (U//FOUO) Update: The convoy has entered Maryland from Pennsylvania and plans to continue to the National Capital Region area.
